THE POWER OF THE ALIBI

Wm. Lee, the negro charged with making an insulting proposition to Mrs. L. A. MacKenzie, was arrested last Saturday and taken to Ormond, where he was arraigned before Justice of the Peace G. M. Wallace. Mrs. McKinzie was positive in identifying him as the man who insulted her, but the negro produced five of his relatives in court, and all of them swore that he was at home, a mile from the scene of the insult, at the time he was supposed to have committed it. In view of this evidence, the magistrate dismissed the case. Lee did not explain why he dodged the officers for nearly a week, when he was innocent, and knew that he could easily prove it by five relatives.

Walks Without crutches.

I was much afflicted with sciatica, writes Ed. C. Nod, Iowaville, Sedgewick Co., Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment which relieved me. I used three 50c bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used. Have recommended it to a number of persons, all express themselves as being benefitted by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 25c, 50c and $1.00.

time to notify Dr. Forbes of my determination. When he learned that my daughter was preparing to leave, he at once called me up over the telephone and asked for an explanation. I gave him my reasons. He became angry, and said this to me:

"I want you to understand, madam, that your daughter is suspended from this school for not asking my permission to go home."

"I answered back that I could stand anything rather than have my daughter remain in the immoral atmosphere about him. At that point he cut off the 'phone connection."
